Lief bought the ship from his cousin and with a crew of 30 men sailed to the west (from Greenland), then south.

He saw wooded lands & finally a harbor where the climate was warm. The men erected a log cabin & remained there about 1 yr.

one day a sailor, who had lived in Germany & knew what he found came bringing grapes.
Lief named the new country Vinland.

He may have been in Massachusetts in the spring the ship was loaded with lumber & sailed for home (Greenland)

on that voyage 15 shipwrecked people were rescued from an island.

Lief Erickson was the discoverer of some spot in New England in 1004 A.D.

He died in 1021 A.D.

Runes on side of Tower in Newport, Rhode Island (were translated in 1946) carved in stone in the wall about 14 feet up from the base. Because the windows in this tower faced the harbor, it is believed this tower was a light house
